Cordially invite you to the Round table:

CHINA'S LAST REVOLUTION?

40 YEARS OF REFORMS (1978-2018) RECONSIDERED

In December 1978 China embraced a series of radical reforms that reshaped its economy, society, international standing, and even cultural outlook. These reforms allowed China to rise to the center of the world’s stage, but also created new problems and challenges. Our round table will evaluate the reforms’ impact, their attainments and failures, and the challenges ahead domestically and internationally.
